But always remember, there may be some things I am not able to do, but still I love you anyway with all my heart. This charming book is told from the point of view of TT, a young girl entering middle school, and is written about her grandmother. Nana is what she calls her. TT fills us in on her Nana s quiet warmth, her strength, her laugh, and her enviable absence of wrinkles. A fun-filled love letter from a granddaughter to a woman she truly adores. Readers will be touched by this story! Yolanda Ogilvie was born and raised in Columbia, Tennessee. She is a graduate from Trevecca Nazarene University with a degree in Marketing and Human Relations. She currently lives in Columbia with her husband, Trent and two daughters. Although this is her first children s book, she hopes readers will be touched by this story of love and courage!.
