ED464443 - FINDING AND KEEPING THE BEST: A RURAL REGIONAL PARTNERSHIP FOR RECRUITING AND RETAINING TEACHERS FOR CHILDREN WITH HIGH-INCIDENCE DISABILIT

BiblioGov. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 22 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in. This final report describes activities and achievements of a 3-year project using a public school and university partnership structure to jointly recruit, select, train, certify, and retain special educators in a high poverty rural service region of Northeastern California. Emphasis was on improvement of educational services for pupils with high incidence disabilities and their families by addressing the critical need for both quantity and quality of personnel through an innovative on-the-job preservice training program. Activities, accomplishments, and outcomes are detailed for each of the following five project objectives: (1) reduce shortage of qualified teachers; (2) attract and select best candidates; (3) provide accessible structure; (4) prepare effective rural teachers; and (5) fashion support structure for teacher assistance and retention. Program evaluation results based on the Government Performance and Results Act objectives are reported, noting consistent differences between student and administrator ratings. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
