Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The New South: Address Delivered at the Convention of the American Bankers Association at New Orleans, November 11, 1902 In the long life of the great lawgiver of Israel there were three eventful periods. The first of these covered that portion of his life which was spent amid the luxurious surroundings of an Egyptian court, as the adopted son of royalty. The second began when he chose to be loyal and true to his own people, and with them to endure poverty and want, rather than remain the petted son of the king s daughter and enjoy all the pleasures that wealth and power could give. This epoch in his life was one of loneliness and privation, as well as one of preparation for the great life work to which he had been called. The third and last period was spent in the service of his people, leading them out of bondage, guiding them through the wilderness, strengthening their faith and their courage, and inciting them to noble lives, by which they would be fitted...
