HARPER PERENNIAL, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 201 x 135 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. In the twenty-first century, political correctness, cynicism, prag-matism, and the commodification of sex have reduced romantic love to a discredited myth or a recreational sport-- a cause for embarrassment, says Cristina Nehring. In A Vindication of Love, Nehring wrests romantic love from the clutches of retrograde feminists and cutting-edge capitalists, thrill-seeking convenience shoppers and safe-sex moralists. With help from lovers ranging from Heloise and Abelard to Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera, Nehring celebrates the wild, irreverent, and uncompromising models of love we have inherited--as she rediscovers romantic love s fearless and heroic provenance, and challenges readers to demand partnerships that fully engage body, heart, and mind.
