Stephen M. White, of California, in the Senate of the United States, June 21 and 22, July 5 and 6, 1898 We are building for time to come, as well as for the present. We can not shift responsibility. The advice of the uninformed or criminal will not mitigate our mistakes, even though their views are momentarily indorsed. Undoubtedly it is pleasant to be with the majority. The acclaim of victory never falls upon an unsympathetic ear when it reaches the person who has joined in bringing it about, but the obligation which attaches to our position requires, it seems to me, something beyond the reward of popularity. The Republic will never be safe if her people depend upon the mere guesses of Senators. The demands of honesty and the candid discharge of the Senator s duty as he sees it are but expressions of the same idea. Mr. President, what are we asked to do? The resolution which has been presented comes from the House of Representatives, and is but a repetition of the resolution prepared by the Committee on Foreign Relations of this body, and is to my mind upon its face, irrespective of the constitutional questions involved, I was about to say absurd in its inaccuracy. Without for the time being debating the desirability of the annexation of the islands, gaze upon this proposed resolution. I appeal to Senators who are opposed to me upon the merits of this subject, and especially to those Senators, eminent at the bar, whose views have always been zealously guarded by their respect for that law which they have sworn...
