Excerpt from American Institute of Consulting Engineers: Proceedings of the Annual Meeting Held January 13, 1941 The young Reeves showed inherent qualities Of this kind. I am told that he played some seven games of chess simultaneously. I do not believe he was blindfolded. As for me, I could never imagine him to be blindfolded either physically by the black hand kerchief, or mentally by wrong information, by false doctrine, propaganda or deceit. AS a naval academy football player he was a terror to the opposing team, especially West Point. He showed his great energy and gift for action here. He was the first man to ever wear a football helmet. It was during the later part of his active career that airplanes were developed and adopted by the Navy. He had the vision to see their capabilities and, more than that, to build up and organize the Naval Air Force Of the United States Navy, and there is none finer. The Air Force as he organized it is an essential part of the Navy. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
