

Called Out: Godly Living for Missional Teens (Africa)

By Jenny Rae Armstrong, Aaron Armstrong

Christians for Biblical Equality, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .God did not create people to just lounge around in a garden, nap in the sun, and pop grapes. We were made to be active agents in creation, God's ambassadors to the world! Designed to be used for students ages twelve to sixteen, this theologically-rich curriculum—updated by CBE's African partners to be relevant to an African context—traces the missional meta-narrative woven throughout Scripture, from creation and the call of Abraham to Christ's revolutionary kingdom and the Spirit-empowered church. Students will be equipped with practical ideas on how to live purposefully as part of the body of Christ, and challenged to go all in, developing their gifts and pursuing God's calling on their life, regardless of gender. Each session contains: A Bible reading. A narrative overview of the Bible reading, focusing on the session's theme. Discussion questions to facilitate conversation—no yes or no questions or fluffy fill-in-the-blanks. A hands-on group activity for tangible learning. Focus on God's missional call regardless of gender.
