Seek, Plan, Strive: How I Turned Sad Into Glad and Plucked Magic from Tragic (Paperback)

By James R Storey

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The author, retired after a long career as a public policy expert in Washington, D.C., recounts major life events with humor and poignancy, beginning with his childhood in the Deep South during World War 2. He attended 10 schools in 4 states and 5 cities, as his family moved often. This extreme mobility added to the angst from the loss of a parent, membership in a newly blended family, and being forced to abandon his childhood religion. He had to overcome an anxiety disorder to turn his life around and attain the goals to which he aspired. The author describes his romantic life in vivid detail as he made the transition from the sexually oppressed 1950s into the swinging 1960s, enduring 2 depressing breakups before finding his soulmate. Major events in his Washington career are discussed, including brushes with high-level political power. Anecdotes of his interactions with the powerful and famous are presented. The impact of family tragedy and dislocation is woven throughout the narrative as the author navigates a minefield of loss, disappointment, and anxiety. Interspersed where appropriate...
