Child of the Greatest Generation

By Gene Herst

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This World War II memoir describes the era of war bonds, food rationing, growing victory gardens, censored V-mail, and defense posters cautioning people with the slogan, Loose Lips Sink Ships. A time of blackouts, air raid drills, and citizens saving newspapers, emptied food cans, and used kitchen grease in support of the war effort. Gene Herst writes about his childhood living in the home of Lucille Ball when her husband, Desi Arnaz served as a corporal in the U.S. Army. It was a time when the government forced American citizens of Japanese ancestry into internment camps while German prisoners of war worked in the farm fields across the United States. For some, this story will be a nostalgic remembrance of what occurred not too far in the distant past, while for the younger people, it would be a glimpse of a lifestyle at a time that was like no other in America during 1941-1945. A time when the popular music reflected loneliness from the separation of loved ones with song titles, I ll Walk Alone,...
