Supplement; A Cumulation of Annual Volumes 4 to 7; Author and Subject Index to a Selected List of Periodicals Not Included in the Readers Guide The fact that the supplement is sold on a service basis makes it possible to index in it periodicals so specialized that only a few libraries have them. The material contained in these magazines, however, may be highly essential to a few individual students. The special research worker has in the supplement an index to the material along his own line which could not be issued as a separate publication because of the prohibitive cost of such an undertaking, but one which is not impaired in usefulness by being combined with references to many other subjects. Some of the special subjects covered in the present cumulation are: astronomy (astrophysical Journal, Popular Astronomy); different phases of education (American Physical Education Review, English Journal, Journal of Geography, Kindergarten-primary Magazine, Nature Study Review, Pedagogical Seminary, Religious Education, School Science and Mathematics, Teachers College Record) philology (American Journal of Philology,...
