University of Massachusetts Press, United States, 1993. Hardback. Condition: New. New.. Language: English . Brand New Book. The power of Herman Melville s fiction owes much to his literary voice - a protean speaking presence brought to life by innovative and masterful rhetoric. In this book Bryan C. Short explores the evolution of that voice through analysis of Melville s works, the application of literary and rhetorical theory and biographical insights. Described by the author as a rhetorical biography , Cast by Means of Figures presents Melville as a self-consciously experimental writer whose literary deveolpment was shaped more by rhetorical concerns than by philosophical, psychological or social influences. Short begins with an examination of Melville s early immersion in the theory of his day, especially that of the widely popular Scottish rhetorician Hugh Blair. He then analyses each of Melville s major fictional writings from Typee to Billy Budd , tracing the structural force and interplay of Melville s key figurative devices. He shows how each work either builds on or departs dialectically from its predecessors in ways that explain the complex and shifting aesthetic of Melville s fiction. In the final chapter, a coda entitled Tropics of Fiction , Short reviews theories of figurative language from classical times to the present and details his own theoretical synthesis.
