Beloved Brethren: It is, as I believe, and as you all will doubtless acknowledge, a lamentable: fact, that notwithstanding all that has been said and written on infant baptism, few, very few, among us do have such clear, consistent, and satisfactory views of this subject, as to set their minds entirely at rest on it, and to enable them with meekness and readiness to give to every one, that asketh them, a scriptural reason for their peculiar faith and practice on this particular point. Of this fact I am thoroughly convinced by my own observation. In private conversations with many of you from time to time on this subject, I have generally found, that whilst you are decidedly paedobaptists in sentiment, and esteem it both a blessed privilege, and a binding duty, to devote your children to Gorin baptism; yet, that your minds are not so thoroughly informed, and so perfectly clear, on this subject, as to free you from every doubt, and to enable you with the confidence of truth, to stand up boldly in defence of your peculiar sentiment, so often as it is assailed by those, who hold a different opinion. Now, this want of clear, scriptural views of this subject, which, if I mistake not, does...
